

Manchester United Kingdom

One of the most iconic hotels in Manchester, Q Hotel's The Midland is in the heart of Manchester. Its distinctive red brick Victorian exterior alludes to its grand historical background. The hotel dates from 1903, when it was built by the Midland Railway Company to provide a luxurious hotel for the rich and powerful. The exterior and interior certainly reflects their grand ambitions and flamboyant style. Since then the hotel has undergone a £15 million refurbishment to bring The Midland up to the modern era, whilst carefully retaining its regal elegance it is so famed for.

Location

In the heart of the city, The Midland Hotel is conveniently situated next door to the Manchester Central Convention Complex and Bridgewater Hall. It is also within easy walking distance to the Opera House and Palace Theatre.

The Property

- 312 spacious guestrooms, including a selection of elegant suites.
- 14 conference rooms and meeting rooms for up to 700 people.
- Restaurant and Bars: The double AA rosette French Restaurant, Wyvern Restaurant and Bar, Octagon Lounge and Colony Restaurant.
- Superb leisure facilities, including gym, swimming pool and squash court

Unique Features

The Midland is the most iconic of all Manchester venues, a landmark presence, fantastic award winning dining, sumptuous bedrooms and opulent decor, is guaranteed to give your guests a lasting first impression.

The fantastic location, coupled with the modern meeting rooms and the awe-inspiring Alexandra Suite for corporate events, make for a truly memorable conference setting in Manchester.

Transport

Manchester International airport is the City's main airport, just a 20-minute train ride to the central Piccadilly Station. Piccadilly is only a mere 800 metres away, whilst Oxford Road Station is only 200 metres away. The city is well-served by public transport too, with the Metrolink tram system offering a quick way to get across the city. You can reach the hotel by getting a link from Piccadilly Train Station to St Peter's Square - directly opposite the hotel. There are also free city centre buses running a variety of routes through the city centre.

16 Peter St, Manchester M60 2DS

w: qhotels.co.uk

RIGHT
VENUES