The Lowry Hotel

On the banks of the River Irwell, the award winning The Lowry Hotel, dominates the skyline with its curved, glass fronted façade. Together with the clean lines and sleek furnishing of the interior, the hotel has a uniquely bright and airy feel. A large terrace arcs around the side of the Chapel Wharf building, providing stunning views across the city. It is arguably Manchester's most glamorous place to stay right now.

Location

Situated in the recently developed Chapel Wharf area on the Salford-Manchester boundary, The Lowry is just minutes away from the high end shopping districts including Harvey Nichols and Selfridges. With the Arndale centre, Manchester Central all at close hand, and the newly developed Media City only a short tram ride away, its an ideal place to hold your next conference or meeting.

The Property

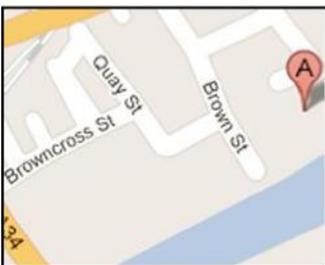

- 164 spacious guestrooms and 7 luxury suites
- 10 fully equipped flexible meeting rooms and a large Ballroom that can hold up to 600 guests
- Restaurant: The River Bar and Terrace offers a modern approach to dining
- The Lowry Spa offers relaxing treatments, fitness centre and a health spa
- Hi Tech Business centre

Unique Features

For a chic city experience, The Lowry Hotel can't be beaten. Their elegant terrace, which links the hotel's bar and restaurant, catches the sun all afternoon. It's the ideal spot to enjoy a delicious afternoon tea or a cocktail in the evening. The Lowry has some of the best corporate meeting rooms in Manchester, from the elegance of the Grand Ballroom to the intimacy of the smaller boardrooms. Each over looking the tranquil River Irwell, this provides the perfect setting for your conference or event.

Transport

Manchester International airport is the City's main airport, just a 20-minute train ride to the central Piccadilly Station. Piccadilly is only 10 minutes away from The Lowry, whilst Victoria is only 5 minutes away. The city is well-served by public transport too, with the Metrolink tram system a popular way to get around the city quickly.
